West Coast Blues Club News

April 2010

A lot of the things that have been happening behind the scenes have finally come to fruition. The West Coast Blues Club has a new Committee, and, a future. These people deserve a big thank you from all members, because without them, there would be no group. It is through their effort that we get to enjoy the club Jam nights, and other events throughout the year. A big thank you also needs to be given to the 'Rockingham Rams Footy Club' for their support in allowing us to use their venue as our new home. It is the beginning of an association that will hopefully last a long time and be beneficial for both clubs.

Finally, thanks must also be given to our many sponsors that make all this possible. - Adam Wieland (Newsletter Editor)

Presented by:

'The West Coast Blues Club Inc.' Rockingham.

Double Trouble

Two Brothers, Blade 11yrs, and Magnus 9yrs. These two definitely inherit their love of music from their dad James Hunt-Hooper, the front man for 13th and their grandfather Butch Hooper, an Irish Folk Rocker, who heads up a prominent Irish Band in Sydney. The young lads can play several instruments and hope to record a cd one day. A plan that will no doubt happen.

13th

Three mates that for years, have crossed paths many times in various different bands. All born out of the late 70s & 80s guitar rock and punk scene and now finally playing together for fun. Front man James Hunt-Hooper, , drummer Rowdy Durance and bass player Jesse.J.Davies.

Loaded Denim are rhythm guitarist Derek Cumpsty , lead vocalist and bass player Phil Arena, drummer Dave Harris and lead guitarist John Cumpsty -In the 1990s, Loaded Denim was a familiar entity in the Mandurah, Rockingham area, playing gigs throughout the southwest. Now reformed, Loaded Denim are the West Coast Blues Club house band

BLUES ALIVE 14th March 2010

More than 5000 people turned out for what was to be the most successful 'Blues Alive' Festival yet! This was a free family community event, funded by City of Rockingham, Healthway & Lotterywest.

Entertainment included East coast talent Mike Elrington, female blues band Sister Mojo, diva Kniki, Tin Dog, as well as the Safety Bay Primary Drum School.

"This was the most successful year by far" said event organizer Fiona Read to the Weekend Courier Newspaper. "Every year it just keeps growing and little by little it is being recognized as a major event down here in Peel and Rockingham area".

"The community groups received a lot of exposure and had a lot of people wanting to join their clubs".

Many thanks to all the wonderful sponsors who made this happen!
