

Live Blues Club Sessions – Information/ guidelines for guest players and singers.

(A brief run-down on how our Live Blues Club Sessions work.)

PERFORMANCE

A PA system, drums and back-line (bass and guitar amp) is provided by the House Band/ Club. Guest players and singers may use their own amps, at the discretion of the stage manager.

We do not provide guitars. If you do not have a guitar, you will need to discuss this with us and we will see if one of our members consents to you loaning theirs (there is no guarantees on this).

Times:

Doors open at 7.00pm. Admission is payable at $10 per person (and only $5 each for West Coast Blues Club members).

Membership forms will be available on the night or can be printed from our website at <http://www.westcoastbluesclub.com.au/> - anytime prior to gig night. Cost is only $20 per person and $30 per couple for one year).

Guest players and singers are encouraged to become paid-up members.

Guest players and singers are recommended to arrive early to leave their name at the desk to register their interest in playing in the Club Session. Performance times and guest-mix is at the discretion of the club representative (usually the Stage Manager or MC).

At 7.30pm the Support Act commence their performance and will play for approx 30 minutes.

The main (House) band will play from approx 8.15pm until approx 9.15pm (one continuous set).

The House Band will remain available - to provide occasional support to Club Session guest players and singers, as may be requested by the Stage Manager/ MC (ie a drummer or bass player, etc).

Sometimes, Club Session guest players and singers will have their own full band – other times they may be a single artist who may or may not need backing.

Guest players must be tuned up and ready to go, 15 minutes prior to their allocated slot start-time. Guest players and singers are given a performance slot of up to 20-minutes - depending on any setting-up delays and on overall running to time.

The Club Session closes at 11.30pm.
